

THE NEWPORT BEACH-BASED BUSINESS LITIGATION firm Klein & Wilson has a trial record a law firm of any size would envy. The firm's partners, Gerald A. Klein and Mark B. Wilson, established themselves by trying and winning cases against some of the largest firms in the United States, recovering nearly $100 million for their clients along the way and achieving defense verdicts in "bet the company" cases.

Small Firm, Big Results

Mr. Klein and Mr. Wilson are experienced and savvy trial lawyers, as opposed to "litigators" Mr. Klein and Mr. Wilson handle every aspect of their cases themselves, from discovery to trial. Both partners have more than two decades each of experience trying cases in the areas of business litigation, legal malpractice, real estate litigation, unfair business practices, trade secrets, copyright and trademark, and insurance bad faith.

Both attorneys received the highest AV-rating from the prestigious law review Martindale-Hubbell and have been honored on the list of Southern California Super Lawyers® every year since 2005. In addition, Mr. Klein has twice received the "Trial Lawyer of the Year" award from the Orange County Trial Lawyers Association.

An Innovative Courtroom Strategy

With a state-of-the-art approach to the courtroom, combining innovative technology with old-fashioned legal expertise, Klein & Wilson understands how to reach jurors in a way that few firms can. Their vivid and engaging multimedia presentations have become a hallmark of the firm, with other attorneys seeking their guidance to create similar presentations for their own trials.

Reputation For Winning

Klein & Wilson has a reputation for winning trials and achieving settlements others believed were not possible. The firm's attorneys have won over ninety percent (90%) of the cases they have taken to trial. This is an unprecedented record very few firms can match when they have tried as many cases as Klein & Wilson. The firm's results speak for themselves.
